

Integrated Workplace Learning with SkillSoft

Looking for that breakthrough strategy to give your company an edge in the marketplace? Superior learning experiences should be a primary consideration. From leadership development, to IT skills, to business and administrative skills, Career Partners International can define and deliver on your learning strategy.

A Cost-Effective E-learning Platform

Through our partnership with SkillSoft, the world's largest and most experienced e-learning provider, CPI offers courseware and books that help executives, managers and employees become more effective. E-learning capabilities now available from CPI provide:

- Anytime access – 24 x 7, 365 days a year
- Anywhere access via a Web browser
- Any-pace learning and course refreshers
- Accredited and credentialed programs
- Audio, animation and simulations

The Integrated Approach

E-learning should never be considered an end unto itself. With CPI, it becomes a cost-effective component of many different programs.

- Executive Coaching – Enhance executive business acumen and develop new motivational techniques with online access to the latest business books, executive summaries and courses.
- Career Management – Let CPI consultants evaluate and develop your future resources using time-proven assessments, seminars and training in conjunction with the SkillSoft learning platform.
- Corporate or Departmental Training – Easily address fundamental issues, such as diversity training or customer service, with SkillSoft's online courses. CPI consultants can integrate one or more tracks into a group e-learning experience.
- Outplacement – Lend esteem to your company with both departing and remaining employees. Ask a CPI consultant to create an affordable plan for making new skills available to transitioning employees.

The CPI Difference

How does e-learning from CPI differ from implementing your own program?

- CPI Experience – CPI's seasoned professionals have clear insight into your industry, as well as hands-on experience using SkillSoft's resources.
- Integration, Integration, Integration – SkillSoft's off-the-shelf resources are designed to complement the personalized programs and services your company receives from CPI.
- Flexibility and Accountability – From program design to course selection and delivery, CPI addresses your organization's unique needs. We also offer live course delivery by our trainers. Regular, customized reports keep you informed of progress toward your goals.
